International Conference on Communication, Computing and Systems 2014

SBS State Technical Campus and City Ferozepur

The Institute was established by the Government of Punjab in 1995 with the name Shaheed Bhagat Singh College of Engineering & Technology as a tribute to the great martyr Bhagat Singh. In the academic year 2011–12, it was upgraded to the status of a technical campus and rechristened as Shaheed Bhagat Singh State Technical Campus, Ferozepur. The Institute is fully promoted by the Punjab Government and is registered as a society under the Societies Registration Act 1860. Its affairs are administered by a Board of Governors. The Technical Campus, with its lush green state-of-the-art campus spread about 100 acres is situated on Ferozepur–Moga Road (NH-95), about 4 km away from the Ferozepur city.

The City, Ferozepur is situated on the Indo-Pakistan International border. It is well connected by road and rail with important cities like Amritsar, Ludhiana, Jalandhar, Chandigarh, Delhi and rest of the country. As per the annals of history, Ferozeshah Tughlaq founded the city in the fourteenth century. However, it is also believed that its founder is Feroze Khan, one of the Bhatti chiefs. Having a rich heritage, it indeed has maintained its name. In the undivided India, it has been a centre of trade and commerce. Ferozepur, with numerous holy shrines, historical places and memorials in and around, has earned a rare status. The hallowed Samadhis of the martyrs: Bhagat Singh, Rajguru and Sukhdev, the Saragarhi Gurudwara commemorating the heroic sacrifice of Twenty One Sikh soldiers at Saragarhi post in Baluchistan and the Jain Swetambar Temple at Zira constructed in 1890 AD are some of the places of pilgrimage showing the spirit of universal brotherhood.
